

CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE
STUDENT RIGHTS

STUDENT RIGHTS

The Connecticut Real Estate Commission informs students who are taking a real estate prelicensing course to obtain a real estate salesperson's license, of the following:

- Real estate schools and instructors are prohibited from soliciting your employment at any one particular real estate firm.
- You are not obligated to contract with any particular real estate firm by virtue of your classroom education alone.

Connecticut Real Estate Commission

Occupational & Professional Licensing Division, Department of Consumer Protection
P(860) 713-6150 F(860) 713-7230 www.ct.gov/dcp

CONNECTICUT REAL ESTATE
STUDENT RIGHTS

- An employment or independent contractor agreement with a real estate firm is typically a binding contract. You are advised to consult with an attorney before you enter into any such agreement.

Connecticut Real Estate Commission

Occupational & Professional Licensing Division, Department of Consumer Protection
P(860) 713-6150 F(860) 713-7230 www.ct.gov/dcp